

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

We already have the same homogenized news coverage in almost all venues. It is very important for democracy to make available diverse voices including dissenting one. Do not make decisions that make the situation even worse. Sincerely,

Dr. Aliza Keddem
